NEW ARRANGEMENTS REGARDING SURVEY OF SHIPBORNE RADIO INSTALLATIONS

All surveys of shipborne radio installations have been transferred from the Finnish Communications Regulatory Authority to the Finnish Maritime Administration as from 2 September 2002.

The radio surveyors of the Finnish Communications Regulatory Authority are now in the service of the Finnish Maritime Administration and are working in the Nautical Division of the Maritime Safety Department. Their new title is radio inspector.

This Bulletin contains instructions on how to commission surveys of radio installations, and related contact information.

Head of Nautical Division

Pekka Korhonen
